KitBrix

KitBrix bags are tough and durable, used best in training or on race day. It is the only kit organisation system that encourages you to 'train as you fight'. Using the same hard-wearing bags individually every day, enabling you to zip together in whatever configuration suits you.

Essential for any athlete, family or sports team, KitBrix is the most functional and most effective of all sports organisers. Users maximise training time, reduce storage and organisational pain of everyday kit organisation and transfer.

Could KitBrix get you combat ready?
